National ShaDO Week

was originally an in-person event where pre-medical students like yourselves would be hosted by colleges of osteopathic medicine (COMs) across the country. Students would receive campus tours and network with admissions officers and osteopathic medical students. Due to recent circumstances surrounding COVID-19, we will now be hosting our second Virtual ShaDO Week, during which COMs will host pre-medical students virtually, provide virtual campus tours, and engage with Pre-SOMA members over the course of three days. Whether you are looking to get questions answered about Osteopathic medicine, admissions, or want to get an inside view on a certain school of your interest, this is the perfect event for you! If you are interested in the event, please register by April 3rd.

"I consider myself a perpetual student. You seek and learn every day: from an experiment in the lab, from reading a scientific journal, from taking care of a patient. Because of this, I rarely get bored." - Dr. Anthony Fauci
